“Sport has the power to change the world. It has the power to inspire. It has the power to unite people in a way that little else does. It speaks to youth in a language they understand. Sport can create hope where once there was only despair.”

Nelson Mandela

Sport Integrity is not just match-fixing

- Manipulation of sporting competitions:
 - Deliberate underperformance (tanking)
 - Abuse of power/governance structures to alter events/outcomes
 - Alteration of sporting equipment/venues
 - Modification of identity/age/misclassification
 - Misreporting of times/results/manipulating qualification

“Integrity is doing
the right thing,
even when no one is watching.”

C. S. Lewis

Final Thoughts

- Integrity in sports impacts on ALL levels of sport in every country in the Pacific
- Organised crime can exploit vulnerabilities and undermine the values of sport
- Strong integrity frameworks will build strong and resilient sports - resistant to corruption
- What would be the impact of corruption in sport in the Pacific?
